This museum technology space must be really easy then, right? We came to MCN 2015 and to this space because we are passionate about museums and we think our technology can help museums, big and small, tell better stories, easier (no coding), more securely, with multimedia, with interactivity, probably cheaper, with the ability to update any time.. In less than a year, with little effort, we were in three exhibits in an amazing museum in a beautiful Frank Gehry building that sits next to the iconic Space Needle, and the monorail literally runs through it.
